AH&T Insurance Expands to Open New York Metro Location

Leesburg, VA (August 3, 2010) – AH&T Insurance is pleased to announce the expansion of its operations to the New York Metropolitan area. Led by Michael Tomasulo and Dennis Gustafson, this location will be the third for AH&T, joining Leesburg, Virginia and Seattle, Washington.

As President of AH&T's northeast operation, Michael Tomasulo will focus on expanding AH&T's Management Liability Practice. Prior to joining AH&T, Mr. Tomasulo was a Senior Vice President and Team Leader for an international broker, focusing on Management Liability for publicly traded companies. He helped to create and run the NASDAQ Insurance Agency for 9 years, prior to its sale to AON in 2009. During his time at NASDAQ Insurance/Carpenter Moore, Mr. Tomasulo was responsible for the East and Central Regions. Prior to working on the Broker side, he held the position of Regional Underwriting Manager for two large international carriers.

Dennis Gustafson joins AH&T as the Senior Vice President of the northeast operation with fifteen years of experience in the insurance industry. Prior to joining AH&T, Mr. Gustafson was the Managing Director & Financial Institutions Practice Leader at NASDAQ Insurance/Carpenter Moore for seven years, preceded by seven years at a large international carrier in roles including insurance sales, underwriting, and operations/technology. Mr. Gustafson specializes in Public Company D&O, Financial Services Management Liability, Professional Liability, Lenders Liability, Cyber Liability, and Fidelity Bonds.

Alexander Green, AH&T President noted, "We are excited about the opportunity to expand in a dynamic marketplace with a seasoned team of insurance professionals."
