AH&T Insurance Promotes Jamie Madonna to Principal

Leesburg, VA – June 8, 2009 – AH&T Insurance is pleased to announce that Jamie Madonna was recently named a principal and owner in the firm. Alexander Green, AH&T President noted, “Mr. Madonna has been a tremendous asset to AH&T. He is truly dedicated to the success of our Seattle office.”

Jamie Madonna joined AH&T’s Seattle office in 2003, with over eleven years of experience. Mr. Madonna focuses on creating insurance programs for the manufacturing, life science and technology industries in addition to his responsibility for running the property and casualty department of AH&T’s Seattle office. These programs include Directors and Officers Liability, Professional Liability, Media Liability, Clinical Trial Liability, Products Liability, as well as many other lines of coverage for these industries. To remain an industry specialist he is active in local Manufacturing, Technology and Life Science associations such as the Northwest Food Processors Association (NWFPA), the Washington Technology Industry Association (WTIA), Washington Biotechnology and Bioscience Association (WBBA), and the Science and Technology Roundtable (STRT).

A resident of the Pacific Northwest for the past 29 years, Mr. Madonna holds a B.A degree with an area of concentration in chemistry and a minor in biology, and earned his MBA in 2000. Mr. Maddona also spent eight years serving his country in the United States Marine Corp Reserve.
