AH&T Insurance Promotes Peter Dean to Principal

Leesburg, VA – June 8, 2009 – AH&T Insurance is pleased to announce that Peter Dean was recently named a principal and owner in the firm.

Alexander Green, AH&T President noted, “Since joining AH&T six years ago, Mr. Dean has focused on management liability for publicly traded companies and growing the agency’s financial institutions practice. He has taken initiative to develop new areas of specialization for the firm. We believe Peter Dean will have a great impact as Principal.”

Peter Dean joined AH&T in 2003 with over 4 years of experience focusing on management liability for publicly traded companies as well as specialized private financial institutions. At AH&T, he is responsible for the cultivation and expansion of the financial institution practice.

Prior to joining AH&T, Mr. Dean was an account manager and underwriter for a national carrier. There, his responsibilities included the role of portfolio manager for the Fidelity and the Employment Practices Liability Book of business in the Mid-Atlantic. These books accounted for over fifty million dollars in premium.

Mr. Dean holds Bachelor of Arts Degree from Hobart College of Geneva, New York, in International Environmental Policy. He is Currently Enrolled in The Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter, and the Registered Professional Liability Underwriter Programs. He currently sits on the advisory board for SONA Bank, a NASDAQ traded bank based in Virginia.
