AH&T's Annual Charity Golf Tournament Raises $23,000 For The Market Foundation

Seattle, WA – December 10, 2007 – The second Annual Charity Golf Tournament of AH&T's Seattle office was a huge success this year, exceeding expectations for participation and donations. The event took place on September 17, 2007 at the Fairwood Golf and Country Club and raised $23,546 for The Market Foundation - specifically the Medical Clinic located in the heart of the Pike Place Market.

The Market Foundation seeks to preserve the Pike Place Market's vitality, diversity, and role as a treasured icon of the City of Seattle. The Foundation supports the Market's human service agencies which serve thousands of low-income, homeless and elderly residents of the Market and Downtown Seattle communities. The Pike Market Medical Clinic serves a patient population challenged by significant health disparities and few resources.

Steve Uno, AH&T Principal, commented, "Everyday we strive to deliver heroic service to our clients and community. We are pleased to donate the profits from this event to The Market Foundation so that they may expand their operations to improve low income health care in our city. Thank you to The Market Foundation for including us in their mission for the Pike Place Market Medical Clinic.
