FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AH&T's Jim Maulfair Recognized as a
"Top 300 Most Influential Advisor in Defined Contribution"

Leesburg, VA – January 12, 2010 – AH&T Insurance is proud to announce that Jim Maulfair was recently recognized as one of the “300 Most Influential Advisors in Defined Contribution.” Prominent industry influencers 401kWire.com, 401kExchange, Inc. and The Boston Research Group sponsor the national ranking, which is based on more than 75,000 votes cast by 401(k) industry insiders.

Jim Maulfair joined AH&T in 2004 to head the Financial Services department. He has lead the growth of the department which now serves clients of all sizes with varying plan types. Mr. Maulfair currently focuses on retirement and financial solutions for companies and business owners. He brought to AH&T over thirteen years of experience in the financial arena. As a Certified Public Accountant with a regional accounting firm, he worked with for-profit and non-profit clients on both the tax and auditing sides, in addition to providing financial planning to individuals. Previously, Mr. Maulfair served as the Chief Financial Officer of a Human Resource firm which provided outsourced solutions in the areas of employee benefits, human resources, payroll, 401(k) and risk management to over 12,000 employees in thirty states.

Mr. Maulfair received a B.S. in Accounting from Pennsylvania State University. He is a Registered Representative and holds the professional designation of Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF) and a Virginia Life and Health Insurance license.

Alex Green, AH&T President noted, “Jim Maulfair is a tremendous asset to AH&T. He has successfully lead our Retirement Planning Services Department for the past five years. This distinguished recognition is well deserved and is truly a testament to his devotion to AH&T clients and the industry.”
