Cluck Cluck Coverage?

When the chicken crosses the road...what happens if they don't make it to the other side? Depends if the chicken is insured or not.

Did you know that some private insurers offer coverage for pet chickens? If your feathered friend doesn't make it home after a mental health walk or loses a battle with a hungry predator—chicken insurance has them covered.

While we can't guarantee the safety of your domestic fowl, we do offer homeowners insurance to protect your space from a complete poultry takeover.

Whether you live alone, with your family, or with a peep of chickens, contact us to ensure your home and everything in it is properly covered.
